

LOSFA's FLY (Financial Literacy for You) Team is an inter-divisional team consisting of members from LOSFA's Public Information and Communications Division, Financial Literacy and Development Division, Default Prevention and Default Recoveries sections to provide Financial Literacy training. Three separate presentations are available depending on the audience: one for college students, one for high school students and one for middle school students. The programs include information on budgeting, credit, banking functions, debt management and repayment and identity theft prevention.

To schedule a FLY Team presentation for a middle school or high school audience contact Jerri Mack at (225) 219-7583 or via email at custserv@osfa.la.gov.
